

General Terms and Conditions

1. General

Seepra Safaris organises and offers Wildlife, Specialist, Fishing and Hunting Safaris mainly in South Africa. These activities are not your average type of package tour. As they involve nature, wild animals, firearms and possible other unforeseen factors. For this reason, Seepra Safaris has developed these terms and conditions which apply to all the safaris that Seepra Safaris offers its travellers.

2. Risk

All travellers partaking in Seepra Safaris, Safaris are aware that there are risks involved, not limited to wild animals, nature, wilderness areas, firearms and their handling and other possible unforeseen risks. Safaris take place in exotic locations which could potentially pose danger or health risk to the traveller. All travellers of Seepra Safaris accept these risks.

A Seepra Safaris representative/guide/professional hunter is always present on safari. The traveller undertakes to comply with any instructions issued by a Seepra Safaris representative/guide/professional hunter regarding any safety, welfare, rules or regulations. In the event of non-compliance, the Seepra Safaris representative/guide/professional hunter has the right to stop the safari until the instruction is complied with. If the instruction is not complied with the Seepra Safaris representative/guide/professional hunter has the right to cancel the safari and send the traveller back home.

3. Insurance and Hunting Documents

The traveller is responsible for ensuring that they have taken out adequate insurance (travel, luggage, cancellation and liability insurance etc.) for their respective safari. The traveller is responsible for ensuring that they travel with all the relevant travel/hunting documents required for each trip.

4. Vaccination

The traveller is responsible for ensuring that they have the required and up to date vaccinations and inoculations for the respective travel destination.

5. Booking and Payments

5.1. Wildlife or Specialist Safari Packages Offered by Seepra Safaris

The traveller confirms their booking with 20% payment of their safari price. The remaining 80% the traveller must pay at the start of the safari.

5.2. Hunting Safaris

The traveller confirms their booking by paying a 20% deposit of the safari price. The remaining 80% the traveller must pay at the start of the safari.

Seepra Safaris has to make binding commitments is good time with the safari destination/country, travellers have the right to cancel their long-haul safaris (including to Africa) at least 70 days before the start of the safari. In that case they will be refunded 50% of their payment. Should the traveller cancel the safari at a later date Seepra Safaris reserves the right to withhold payments already made.

6. Seepra Safaris Reserves the Right to Change or Alter a Safari

Seepra Safaris reserves the right to change the itinerary of the Safari if local conditions or regulations change. If the conditions or regulations prevent Seepra Safaris from carrying out the safari, Seepra Safari reserves the right to cancel the safari and refund the money paid by the traveller or Seepra Safaris could offer the traveller an alternative safari, by agreement with the traveller.

Seepra Safaris reserves the right to cancel a safari, if the pre-determined minimum number of travellers is not met. The traveller will then be informed of the cancellation in writing at least 21 days before the start of the safari. If Seepra Safaris cancels a safari on this basis, money paid by the traveller will be refunded or an alternate safari could be offered, by agreement with the traveller.

7. Possible Other Fees

Certain safaris contain fees that are required to be paid on safari location. The traveller undertakes to pay such fees. Seepra Safaris undertakes to provide its travellers with an estimate of these fees in advance of their safari if there are any.

8. Other

Seepra Safaris, safaris are subject to the Package Travel Act (1079/1994) as well as applicable terms negotiated by the Association of Finnish Travel Industry and Finnish Competition and Consumer Authority.

Key information about the safety and other characteristics of specific travel destinations is available on the websites of the Finnish Ministry for Foreign Affairs and the National Institute for Health and Welfare at www.um.fi and www.thl.fi. The traveller must read the information in order to familiarise themselves with local conditions at the destination.